Mining Brokers To Be Chamber Guests

Due to the rapidly increasing interest in the subject of Gold Mining requests have been received by the mining committee of the Nevada City Chamber of Commerce to sponsor a meeting of brokers and business men from the Bay district who are interested in California Gold Mining.

Following this suggestion ,Fred F. Cassidy, President of the Chamber has issued invitations to the members of the three San Francisco stock exchanges and to the Los Angeles Curb Exchange together with their friends and other interested business men to visit the Nevada City Grass Valley districts this coming week end. Mr. Cassidy has also invited the members of the Grass Valley Chamber of Commerce to take an active part in the proceedings. The Sacramento, Auburn and Reno chambers have been urged to attend.

A. W. Hoge, chairman of the mining committee; Orlando McCraney, Gordon M. Bettles, E. E. Barker and Edward C. Uren are in charge of the day's program.

While most of the out of town visitors will arrive Saturday evening no particular feature has been provided for that evening. However there will be ample opportunity to visit and discuss the mining situation. The program for Sunday contemplates a tour of the mines of the Grass Valley and Nevada City areas followed by a dinner at the National Hotel at 1:00 o'clock. There will be a few brief talks following the dinner and an open meeting to promote discussion of the local mining situation. The program should be complete by 3:00 p. m. leaving ample time for the visitors to drive back to the Bay region.

MEMBERSHIP TO ASSIST

The Nevada City Chamber of Commerce requests the active support of its membership in making the occasion a success. It is especially suggested that those members interested particularly in mining attend the dinner at the National Hotel. The charge for the dinner will be $1.00 per plate and notification of intention to attend should be given to the Chamber of Commerce or to the National Hotel. Mining men or any others interested in mining are cordially invited to be present.

The principal object of the meeting is the encouraging of interest in the local mining industry, and development of a spirit of co-operation between local interests and outside sources of capital. It is a most constructive move on the part of the Chamber of Commerce and Mr. Cassidy and his directors are to be congratulated on their initiative.

MEETING IN PROTEST

While the Nevada City Chamber moved to stimulate interests in Nevada counties gold mines among the large fraternity of mining brokers in the two big cities of the state, both Nevada City and Grass Valley mining men gathered in a meeting Tuesday night in the Grass Valley Chamber of Commerce rooms formulate a protest against the legislation now pending in Congress which if enacted, it is believed would close the big mines in this county and throw upwards of 1300 men out of work.

The protest was directed against the Black thirty hour week bill which would enforce a six hour day and five day week upon all industries. Telegrams of protest were sent to Secretary of Labor Perkins, Senators Johnson and McAdoo, Congressman Englebright and all his California coleagues in the House of Representatives.

Among those who voiced general concern for the gold mining industry were L. S. Wincapaw, A. E. Crase, E. S. Jacobs, Fred Nobs, C. A. Brockington, C. E. Clinch, M. J. Brock and E. E. Barker.

PHOENIX MINE RECONDITIONED

The Phoenix mine, south west of Grass Valley known as the old Riley ranch, near the rich old Allison ranch mine, has been unwatered and reconditioned within the last few weeks.

A few days ago the company let the contract for sinking of the old 100 foot shaft an additional 100 feet.

A crew of ten men was put on and work is progressing at a rapid rate.

The Phoenix mine is equipped with electric power and this is to be cut in within a short time.

Mrs. Charles Bennetts, daughter-in-law of Mayor and Mrs. R. J. Bennetts, and Miss Marie Johnson of San Francisco, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Bennetts.

SUPERVISORS TO LICENSE COUNTY BEER DEALERS

The supervisors at their closing session Wednesday passed on ordinance which permits the issuance of licenses to sellers of beverages containing alcohol, both those who sell in original packages and those who sell on the premises.

Definition of "on sale," according to the ordinance, is for consumption on the premises and "off sale" is for beverages in packages consumed off the premises.

Beverages will be sold on the premises only of public eating places. But at the discrestion of the supervisors licenses for sales of beverages in original packages may be granted "on sale" license holders.

Other provisions of the ordinance are that: upon reecipt of an application for a license the Board of Supervisors shall thoroughly investigate the same and must deny the application of the applicant who is not a fit and proper person to sell such beverages; if the premises and equipment of the plans thereof are not suitable and proper for public use or do not comply with the sanitation laws; if the applicant has had a license forfeited, suspended or revoked under the provisions of the ordinance; if the applicant subsequent to the passage of the ordinance or either one year prior to the filing of the application has been convicted of a violation of any law concerning the manufacture, transportation, or sale of liquor or has been convicted of a felony under any law; if the applicant is not of good moral character.

The fees are $10 per annum for "off sale" licenses and $12.50 per quarter for each "on sale" license.

NEVADA CITY HIGH SCHOOL BAND CONCERT

The Nevada City high school band last evening played a concert at the Nevada City theatre, rendering the program which they will play in the state-wide contest in the San Francisco Civic Auditorium on May 13. Part of the proceeds of the evening have been donated by the manager, William Tamblyn, to the fund which the band will use to defray the expenses of the trip. L. E. Sweeney, director of the band, expects the boys and girls in his band to make a splendid showing. The Nevada City Chamber of Commerce has donated $40 toward the expense of the trip, and the students are hopeful of raising enough more to cover all the cost.

GILLET NURSERY TAKES PLANTS TO NEVADA

C. E. Parsons, owner of the Gillet Nursery of Nevada City, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. T. Angiolini in two trucks motored to the state of Nevada with trees and shrubs last week returning Saturday evening. They planted these trees at the Indian school at Stuart, and in various home gardens in the cities of arson, Minden and Reno. After they passed the summit this side of Donner Lake they had a very bad three quarters of an hour traveling in a blinding snow storm. In 15 minutes fully five inches of snow fell.

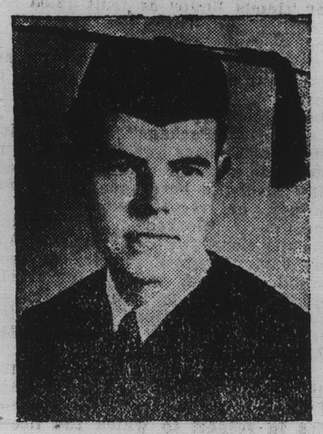
NEVADA CITY BOY TO GET ST. MARY'S DEGREE



CARROLL COUGHLAN

SAINT MARY'S COLLEGE, May 4.—A large group of Nevada City friends and relatives of Carroll J. Coughlan plan to be present at St. Mary's College Sunday when the young man receives his degree of bachelor of science at the colorful ceremonies of the 70th annual St. Mary's commencement.

Coughlan matriculated at St. Mary's in the school of economics and finance, after graduating from the Nevada City high school. He has had an enivable scholastic record while at St. Mary's being early elected to the A. P. G. U. honor society, and president of it for the past year.

Coughlin specilized in a study of unemployment, writing his thesis on "Unemployment Insurance in England."

He will take an active part in the traditional ceremonies which mark the annual St. Mary's Commencement. The day opens with the graduates' Mass and baccalaureate sermon, folliwing which is the customary pilgrimage to the old familiar campus spots. In the afternoon a crowd of several thousand will gather for the Commencement itself, which takes place in the beautiful quadrangle formed by the campus chapel and the acadmeic buildings.

Presiding over the ceremonies and granting the degrees to the fifty-five members of the class of 1933, will be Most Rev. Edward J. Hanna, Archbishop of San Francisco.

Monroe E. Deutsch, vice-president and provost of the University of California, will give the address to the graduates and will also be honored with the degree of doctor of laws.

ELECTRIC HOIST FOR CANADA HILL

Orlando McCraney, Manager for West Mines Corporation, reports that progress of work on the Canada Hill property to date has been very satisfactory. Retimbering of the shaft to the drain tunnel level is considerably over half completed and while progress has been somewhat retarded by the encountering of water in the past week, provisions for handling the water have been made. Laying of a pipe line connecting with the upper Cascade ditch was rushed to completion and ejectors are now working in the shaft. The electric power line to the mine is near completion and current will be ready for the large sinking pumps which will be used in unwatering the mine by the time the caved portion of the shaft is recovered. An electric hoist of ample capacity for exploration of the property at depth has been ordered and will be delivered within a few days. A compressor driven by a hundred horse power motor has been ordered and will be immediately installed so that actual mine work may commence as soon as the water is removed from the shaft.

The program of development will be largely in partly proven territory and some production is anticipated virtually from the outset of mining operations. The custom mill owned by the company is in readiness to receive this initial mine production. The capacity of the mill is about 35 tons daily and it is expected that this amount of production may readily be reached within a few weeks after mining starts and after development drifts have been driven into the probable ore zones.

Mayor and Mrs. R. J. Bennets will leave for Ontario, Canada, within a few days to attend the graduation exercises of McGill University, where their son Carl Bennetts, will receive medical degree. The young man has already been appointed to the staff of the Montreal General hospital, an unusual honor for a graduate from the "States."

Historic Donation Day Is Here Again

Donation Day with its historic pageant, handed down as a generous tradition from the generous pioneers, will be celebrated this afternoon in Nevada City.

The procession will start from the Washington Grammar school, under the leadership of Grand Marshall Rolland Wright ,will move down Broad street to the Plaza, thence up Main street and Pine street to the city hall, headquarters of the day.

This event is sponsored annually by the Nevada City Benevolent Society, and the direction of the procession, the special stunts, the comic features, which always distinquish the parade, are left to the Elks who assist mightily in making the affair is a success. Among other features of the parade is a little red wagon with eliptical whels in which member Elks, who are found outside the procession are obliged to ride and pay a high fare, especially as regards the comforts of the ride

The parade will be headed by the grand marshall, followed by the tiny tads in the elementary school classes and after them the rest of grammar school and high school students.

Music will be provided by the Nevada City high school band in natty uniforms of purple, gold and white, and by the Native Sons drum and bugle corps.

The Boy Scouts, members of Nevada City Troop No. 6, will be out in force assisting in the great good deed through which Nevada City itself annually contributes to the fund for those in distress.

The report of the Benevolent Society just issued shows that $777.07 has been expended this year for relieving those in need. The detailed report follows:

$56.15 for meat; $39 for milk; $16.14 for clothing and $34.02 for miscellaneous articles.

CITY COUNCIL TO LEVY BEER TAX

The city council last evening heard the first reading of an ordinance to regulate and license beer dealers in Nevada City. It was in all practical phases similar to that passed by the board of supervisors described in another column, except that it is proposed to levy a tax of 50 cents per 31 gallon barrel upon draft beer for consumption on the premises, and take the hours for closing between midnight and 6 o'clock a. m.

Water collections reported by Miss Ada Rich for April were $1428 out of total charges of $1548 for the month. Total charges included a considerable number of users who pay by the quarter, the half year and the year, which would not fall due in April. The board commented on the excellent showing in water collections. The board is inaugurating a drive to shut off the water of those who do not pay the city water bills.

The board discussed the purchase of a truck for city use. It was stated that truck rentals will soon exceed the price of the truck.

The following bills were ordered paid:

LANDREGAN IS FINED $25 FOR RECKLESSNESS

Byron Landrigan appeared before Justice of the Peace W. L. Mobley yesterday morning at 10 o'clock on a charge of driving while under the influence of alcoholic liquor. On motion of Deputy District Attorney Robert Tharp, the charge was reduced from drunken driving, a felony, to reckless driving, which is a misdemeanor.

Tharp stated that following an interview with E. E. Gordon, who swore to the complaint of drunken driving following a collision at 4 o'clock last Sunday morning in which his wife sustained injuries, the complaining witness had expressed a desire not press the charge of drunken driving. He therefore moved to reduce the charge.

Landrigan pleaded guilty to drunken driving. Judge Mobley fined him $25 and stated that he understood that Landrigan had been introuble before with traffic officers under circumstances similar to those of last Sunday. He exacted a promise that Landrigan would never again drive while drunk. Landrigan stated that he would pay his fine by noon yesterday.

Deputy District Attorney Tharp in making his motion to reduce the charge against Landrigan, stated that the defendant had promised to pay all damages rising from the collision ,including damage on the Gordon car and the hospital and medical bills of Mrs. Gordon.

SKI ASSN. DANCE TO BE GALA EVENT

The committee appointed to sell ski dance tickets were busy yesterday and a large number were sold. The price is one dollar each.

The money derived from this dance is to be used in the betterment and improvement of the big course nine miles from Nevada City on the Tahoe-Ukiah highway, and pay off debts.

The dance is to be held May 13 at Veteran's Memorial building in Grass Valley and the ticket purchaser is guaranteed more than the worth of his dollar in the big time to be enjoyed in both the regular numbers and in many novelties on the dance program. The Sierra-Naders, an eight piece orchestra, will provide music for the five hours of dancing.

The presentation of a grand door prize, is also an attractive feature of the evening. A new Philco Transitone automobile radio will be a feature. Ten other gifts will be given during the evening for dancing, five being given by Nevada City business houses and five by Grass Valley firms. The five Grass Valley firms giving awards are: J. C. Penney Co. Golden Rule Stores, Inc., Foote Electrical Co., Maurice Photographer, and Kilpatric's Grocerteria. Sheriff Carter, who is in charge, says that the following business firms of Nevada City are to contribute prizes: Alpha Stores Inc., S. Lee Leiter, Alex Ramsey, Dickerman's Drug Store, and James Penrose.

There is to be a beer garden, the idea being an imitation of a famous garden in Munich. The large stage of the Veterans Memorial building is to be used as a garden. The popular 3.2 beer, with Dutch dunch, pretzels and so forth, are to be served.

A Keno game to be a feature.

HYDRAULIC AID BILL PASSES BY STATE SENATE

State Senator Jerrold Seawell, representing this district in the state legislature, had the satisfaction Tuesday of seeing his bill, which would help to rehabilitate the hydraulic mining industry along the Mother Lode, pass the senate unanimously.

The Seawell bill, known as S. B. No. 480, provides that hydraulic mining districts may be formed and authorizes by bond issue voted by tax payers in the district, the erection of retaining dams for tailings It gives directors of the district the power to enter upon any land and make surveys, locate the necessary works and the lines for canals, and the necessary branches for the same on any land that may be best for such location; lay out the necessary canals or other means of conducting tailings to storage basins or reservoirs and to lay out such storage basins or reservoirs.

The bill safeguards in every particular the agricultural interests of the farming communities in the Sacramento valley, whose only objection to hydraulic mining was that under the old methods, the tailings, gravel and silt were washed into the rivers and silted up the stream to such an extent that levees had to be constantly raised and in wet seasons disasterous floods occured.

UNEMPLOYMENT CAMP IS CLOSED

Eighty five remaining in the unemployment camp adjacent to this city Wednesday climbed aboard trucks and were taken to Sacramento, thus closing the camp for this season, and it may be, until the next depression.

As the men sat down to their last breakfast they were treated to a pleasant surprise, in the form of a five dollar check presented to each man to help him to find himself when landed in Sacramento.

Under the supervision of State Forest Ranger W. F. Sharpe the name "unemployment camp" has been a misnomer. As a matter of fact the men in the camp have done a vast amount of work, not only in improving the quarters about their camp, but in building roads, clearing the snow from Nevada City streets ,and work in taking out the kinks in the state highway, notably the entrance to this city on the Downieville highway. Sharpe states that the men have expended 48,378 one man hours of labor in work in this community and near-by neighborhoods.

ALL CAMPS TO CLOSE

SACRAMENTO, May 4—(UP)—Seven thousand men who have been working for months in state labor camps for only board and lodging, will be gradually dismissed with a view of closing the camps completely by May 10.

Each man will be handed five dollars as he leaves camp—this to assist him in returning to his home or to locations where he may obtain employment.

The state division of forestry is enthusiastic over the success of the unusual and unprecedented experiment.

MANY TO JOIN C. C. C.

A definite attempt will be made to provide employment for many of the state labor workers in the President's reforestation camps. Age limits for these camps are between 18 and 26. Those who are within that age ratio will be retained at the state labor camps until the close in the hope that by that time they may be able to qualify.

State labor camps have rehabilitated many human wrecks, officials asserted. Hundreds of men who were broken down physically and mentally have thrived under the healthy, although payless, out-of-door work in the camps. They will leave the camp adequately clothed and with a small stipend as a "traveling stake."

CRIPPLING GOLD MINING

The good Lord knows that the gold mining industry has had trials enough. It has suffered all the tribulations of Job and Lazarus rolled into one. State and national laws have placed upon it innumerable handicaps. The blue sky law, aimed at sharpers, hit the hard working mine owner, and missed the sharper. The compensation insurance act, intended to protect the miner threw thousands of them out of a job and helped to close mines. The Caminetti act protected the farmer and robbed the placer miner.

Now we have the spectacle of Congress in the midst of debating a law to shorten hours of all wage earners to six hours a day, and five days a week

From the point of view of Nevada county, the thing debated seems too unreasonable, too monstrous to be possible. Somewhere in the Senate, somewhere in the House of Representatives, somewhere in the President's cabinet or among his advisers there must be men with brains sound enough to withstand this tendency of unloading on the President every power and every responsibility of Government.

So far we have rather applauded all that the president has done under the carte blanch he has asked and has received from Congress. But now we are beginning to wonder a little. If he is given the power to put into effect, or if Congress passes a law to shorten the daily hours of labor, and the working week, just what will happen to the 1300 or 1400 men employed in the gold mines of this country; just what will become of those who have invested millions in the mines here; just what, in short, will happen to the gold mining industry, here and elsewhere, in the United States?

Somehow we believe that the vigorous protest arising from Nevada City and Grass Valley, will reach the ears of President Roosevelt. That he will permit an industry, so essential to the country's rehabilitation to drink of this deadly cup, seems incredible.

However, in the zeal to provide employment, to increase the spread of employment throughout the country, Congress, few members of which have any interest in, or understanding of the mining industry, might do that very thing. How many of the people's representatives or senators, for instance, are acquainted intimately with the day to day routine of mine operation?

How many know that the eight hour shift really means, on the average little more than seven hours of actually work? That it requires in most cases 7 hours, in which to clear away the muck and the ore, when there is ore, drill new holes, charge them with explosive and fire them? How many know anything of the length of time required to ventilate the mine and clear away the powder fumes and gas to make it safe for the men to work? How many know of the dead time that must elapse between one shift going on, and another coming off? These technical details of mining must be understood and must be explained to the men who represent us in Congress.

The protest meetings held in Grass Valley, the bombardment of telegrams eminating therefrom and now pouring in upon all those in the seats of power ,are the only possible means the mining industry has of expressing its desperate concern. They may not be necessary, but an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure, and while we are healthy, while the mining industry is making such forward strides as have not been witnessed in many years, let us bend every energy to clearing away all obstacles to further and continued progress.

By H. M. L.

An old lady and her sister used to live next door to the writer. They were splendid types of American womanhood, probably both more than three score and ten years old. One was a spinster the other was a grandmother, greatly beloved by her children and grandchildren. Her sister, the great aunt, too, was really a matriarch in the family councils.

They were not rich, and they lived frugally and helpfully. They were active in church work, active in all benevolent causes, civic minded, interested and energetic in forwarding all community plans for beauty or betterment.

* * *

These two sisters spent a weekend with relatives near the bay. They were driven by a grandson, a youth in his early twenties, competent and careful in his driving, eager to drive as his grandmother and great aunt would have him drive. On their return the highway was full of traffic, automobiles going and coming.

Sudenly, out of nowhere it seemed, an automobile in passing crashed against the side of their car, crowding it into the bank and wrecking it. The car, apparently driven at high speed by a very drunken driver, careened off the car of the two old ladies and crashed into an approaching car, but strangely, as things sometimes happen in a drunkard's dream, was not itself wrecked, but after wrecking the two cars sped onward down the highway, the drunken driver stepping hard on the gas.

* * *

In the rush and the excitement of the two collisions ,happening like pistol shots one after the other, no one noted the license number of the crazed driver. It was a green roadster in which rode two young men. That was the best description that could be given the traffic officer when he at length arrived, summoned an ambulance and sent seven persons, thre from one wrecked car and four from the other, to be treated at an emergency hospital.

* * *

Twenty stitches were taken to close a long cut across the face of one of these old ladies. The other suffered shock and bruises that confined her to her bed for weeks. The injuries of their driver were slight. What the suffering among the four other persons in the other wrecked car was never learned. Whether the drunken driver continuing his mad career down the highway, was ever arrested, is unknown. Whether he crashed into other cars, meeting or passing, whether some vigilant traffic officer finally landed him in jail the rest of the tale cannot be told because the facts were never learned.

* * *

The drunken driver at his best is a public nuisance. At his worst he is Death mounted on wheels. That he does not slay everything he strikes is just as much of an accident as is the collision in which he wrecks cars and and wounds and maims the occupants. He may or may not kill, but it is only a chance when he does not.

Mrs. John Free and four children Mr. Free's father and mother left North Bloomfield this morning for their home in Indian Fall. They have been here visiting Mrs. Free's husband and Mrs. Jack Miller.

BILL WOULD AID HOME BUILDERS

SACRAMENTO, May 4.—(UP)—Many homes on small plots of lands may be errected in Nevada county if the "land chest bill" now before the legislature is enacted into law.

The purpose of the bill is to allow use of Reconstruction Finance Corporation funds for financing low cost homes to be sold to the wage earner without profit.

The measure was introduced in the assembly by Assemblyman Clare Woolwine and is before the assembly with the approval of the assembly public charities and corrections committee.

MAKES FUND AVAILABLE

"The reconstruction finance corporation has made available funds for construction of low cost homes under direction of the state," Woolwine said. "There is no existing law under which application for use of this money in California may be made. The bill which has been named the "land chest act" provides necessary regulation for use of the money under the direction of the corporation commissioner of the state.

"Under its provisions organizations may apply for funds with which to build small low cost dwellings. These will be sold to the wage earner at cost and the money repaid over a long period.

"While the R. F. C. will advance no funds for administration of such appropriations we have been assured that there will be sufficient money donated to care for any administrative charges.

"The corporation commissioner has assured me his office can carry out the work with no additional expense to the state."

Hal Rorke, managing editor of the Illustrated Daily News of Los Angeles appeared before the committee urging adoption of the bill.

"The enactment of the bill will allow the small wage earner to get away from the congested areas of the cities. It will allow him to purchase a home under conditions within his means and it will stimulate the building activity in California.

"It has been carried out successfully in other states and we feel that California should avail itself of the fullest opportunity to use R. F. C. funds for the benefit of the home owner."

BAKERY PAGEANT

By CHRISTIAN ANDERSEN

As the band ceases playing, the strident blare of massed trumpets suddenly stir the echoes, and the flag of the kingdom unfurls at the masthead ,it is caught in the breeze and we see it's field is of pure white icing with a beautiful red cherry in the center. At this moment the King rides onto the plaza in his new shiny nickeled bakepan. With all his aids following, eyes will never see such a beautiful sight again.

General Bearclaw growls an order, and the whole army execute the royal salute. Then the band under the baton of Colonel Stollen play, The Dance of the Danish Pastry. And the rendition of this piece will long be remembered. As the music dies away the King arises, he holds up his hand for silence, and in a voice overcome with emotion speaks.

"My most beloved hunger fighters I am most proud of you all, you are magnificent. And I have this day declared war on the Republic of Hunger, our common enemy, and than whom there is no worse or more difinite destroyer of everyones morale. Long have they annoyed us. And it is with complete justification that with your help we shall forever banish the Republic of Hunger from the face of the earth. And I feel that with the arms which Minister of War Cookie has provided for you viz, Calories, Nutriment, Vitamins X Y and Z—Energy and good looks, you will be able to annihilate the whole army of hunger in no time at all. And as you go into battle remember your King is with you."

And before sundown that very day, on a million tables appeared this army of bread, cakes, doughnuts, pies, buns and delicate pasteries.

They so completely vanquished hunger, as to leave no doubt in the minds of everyone but that the Bakery Kingdom, with it's outposts in every town in the land would always be able to conquer hunger.

The news of the victory of the Bakery Kingdom over the hideous phalanxes of the armies of the Republic of Hunger was brought to King Cream Puff immediately. He at once proclaimed a national holiday with gala festivities in every bakery in the kingdom. All the delicate characters of the bakery were ordered to "strut their stuff"—The Macaroons,—The Lady Fingers,—The French Doughnuts,—The Crullers,—The Jenny Linds,—The Boston Cream Pies,—The Angel Food Cakes,—The Apple Turnovers,—The Ice Box Cookies,—The Cheese Cakes,—and Ginger Bread Men,—were ordered out on parade.

SWALLOWED DIME LODGES IN MAN'S LUNG

MARYSVILLE, May 4.—(UP)—W. F. Allen, Yuba City octogenarian, recently swallowed a dime which lodged in his right lung.

Efforts of local surgeons to remove the coin proved unavailing and plans were made to enlist the services of a Los Angeles specialist, believed to be the only one in the state possessing equipment to handle such cases.

Because of the advanced age of the patient, the operation was considered exceedingly delicate. Extreme care must be exercised, surgeons said, not to injure the lung tissue.

ENEMIES NOW FRIENDS IN REAL ESTATE DEAL

SACRAMENTO, May 4.—(UP)—Otto Gundel, German war veteran, and Walter Baker, American ex-service man, are agreed it's just as well they didn't "get" each other fifteen years ago.

Recently Gundel, who moved to California two years ago, purchased a house from Baker, a real estate agent. During the course of the negotiations, the two compared their war notes.

The records showed Gundel, serving with the Germany heavy artillery, and Baker, a member of the 90th infantry division, had faced each other for weeks in the same sector during 1928.

Bile Stagnates In Sluggish Livers and Makes Us Sick

Unless your liver furnishes plenty of fresh bile every day your food does not digest properly—it just ferments and decays in the bowels—constipation, gas, sour stomach, headaches, nervousness, etc., are the result.

Sargon Soft Mass Pills relieve the cause of this condition. They are not like any medicine you have ever taken (write for free literature describing their action and effects). Don't be misled. Calomel, salts, mineral waters, laxative pills, etc., have no effect on the liver. Sargon Soft Mass Pills contain the only two substances which will actually cause a sluggish liver to increase its production of bile.

SNOWDEN HILL MINE TO RESUME

CAMPTONVILLE, April 29.—C. T. Driscoll of Irvington, trustee of Snowden Hill mine, has given an option for 60 days to T. J. Cane and W. J. Nert, of San Francisco, to the property. During this period, these men expect to come up with an engineer and fully make an investigation of the property and if it appears to be what they think it is, they will commence operations. They already have the necessary capital to go ahead with.

Snowden Hill mine is one of the oldest and always considered the best placer property in this section. A drift gravel proposition owned and worked in the early days by Jerry Watts, a popular character in this section, who through a tunnel took out a large sum of money. Since his time, it has been operated off and on by various companies.

The present owners, a group of farmers and business people of Mission San Jose, have been in control for the past ten years. It is the opinion of several of the local people and old timers that there yet remains at Snowden Hill a considerable portion of virgin gravel channel, which should be a very good paying proposition. The mine is located nine miles north of here in the snow belt.

LUCKY FISHERMEN CATCH TROUT LIMIT

James and Eddie Trimmer braved the elements Monday and went fishing in Grizzly Canyon several miles north of Nevada City. They returned home late and soaking wet from the rain and moisture dripping from the trees, but happy nevertheless, with the limit of nice trout. This is one of the best catches of the season so far. James Trimmer, who came from San Francisco for the opening of the season, returned home happy.

LITTLE BOBBIE, TAKEN FOR RIDE, DISLIKES IT

GRASS VALLEY, May 4—(UP)—Gangsters' victims aren't the only persons that are "taken for a ride," according to little Bobbie Pengelly.

While crossing a street here, Bobbie became entangled in a rope dragging behind a passing automobile. The lad grasped the rope as his feet were jerked from the pavement. For two blocks, Bobbie bounced along the concrete in a sitting position, his lusty yells failing to attract the motorist's attention.

Then came an arterial stop sign—and freedom for Bobbie. The driver, unaware of the situation, continued on his way, and Bobbie, uninjured but minus the seat of his trousers, scampered for home.

In one of the 300-man camps in Southern California, the average gain in weight was 12 pounds per man. Camp executives reported discipline and morale of the workers was excellent.

Peak attendance in the camps was reached on April 1. On that date there were 7,184 men working. Since that time the attendance has been sliding gradually.. On Aril 15, there were 6,148 men in camp. During the next few days labor liquidation will be accelerated. State officials said further appropriations could not be secured to continue the project. Its apparent success has led the mto consider it an ideal method of helping destitute men tide over the depression.
